

THE DAILY APPEAL.

THURSDAY..... DECEMBER 16, 1858.

Beautiful Suburban Property FOR SALE.

We have for sale eleven and one-half acres beautiful suburban property, situated on the corner of the new State line road and McLean avenue, two miles east of the city. This property is all under fence, and surrounded by fine dwelling houses. It will be sold at public auction on THURSDAY, the 23d day of December.

Terms.—One-third cash, one-third in six months, and the balance at two years, without interest.

Persons desiring to inspect the property will please call on Col. D. C. McLean, Tilman Bettie, Mr. Myers, Mr. Littlejohn, or Mr. Lynch, on the premises.

For terms, at private sale, apply to Col. G. L. Koch, or to

McCLANAHAN, THROUBL & DILL.

NOTICE.—An Appeal Officer.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the sale of suburban property advertised for to-day by G. L. Koch, has been postponed until Thursday, the 23d inst.

COD—WANTED.—See the advertisement in another column headed "Wanted to Buy."

ROOMS TO RENT.—See advertisement of Col. W. M. PERINNE, in today's paper.

HAMPTON MCGAULAY, Esq., U. S. Marshal, for West Tennessee, is at present in the city.

STEALING.—John McCleary, for stealing a truck and contents from the wharves, was put in jail on Tuesday night.

WE invite attention to Trustee's sale of valuable property, to come off at 11 o'clock, today, in front of the Sheriff's office.

DANGEROUS.—The west side of Broad street is in an impossible condition, from the giving way of the flooring.

ARRESTED.—THOMAS GRANT, charged with stealing iron castings from the foundry of Curtis & Knapp, was arrested on Tuesday morning.

ANOTHER CONCEALED WEAPON.—The Rev. Edward pastored first J. H. BEHN twenty days for carrying a deadly weapon secreted on his person.

LUGGAGE DEALERS FINED.—A. G. VACCANO was fined twenty dollars by the Recorder, for selling liquor after eleven o'clock at night.

NUMBER OF HACKS.—Early October, two months ago, an omnibus company, having a large number of coaches, busses, traps, buggies and omnibuses, running in this city under a license, not only to have their number painted in characters at least two inches in diameter on the lanterns of their vehicles, but also to have the same placed conspicuously on the sides. This license, and an overcoat, was issued to them, yet we hear it has been universally neglected. The captains and other police authorities should call the attention of their men to that subject, that those who neglect to obey the law, may be subject to justice.

SELLING.—Since H. P. MILLER & Co. introduced their new drug store, they have been in great request. A lady is waiting to attend upon those wishing to see the machine at their disposal.

THE WASH-SHOPS.—The Wash-shops, which were still for rent, have been let to Mr. H. H. BRENNER, for carrying a dry-cleaning establishment.

NEW CHURCH.—We learn that the Methodist church, organized by Mr. Louden and Horace, is about to be born, and very extensive structures in its place.
